

A CAISSON EXPLODES.

Terrible Accident to Government Troops at Chicago.

FOUR KILLED, A SCORE INJURED.

Several of the Latter Horribly Mangled and Likely to Die—Great Damage Done to Surrounding Property by the Flying Shells and Fragments.

CHICAGO, July 17.—A caisson of Battery F, Second artillery, U. S. A., exploded with terrific force yesterday afternoon at Grand and Oakwood boulevards. Three artillerymen and one trooper were instantly killed. Nearly a score of other persons—troops, residents in the vicinity and passers-by—were injured, some of them fatally. The list of the killed and wounded is as follows:

Killed—J. Donovan, private, Battery F, Second artillery, Edward Doris, private, Battery F, Second artillery, Joseph Gaylor, private, Troop B, Seventh cavalry, Fred Stolz, private, Second artillery.

Wounded—Sergeant Linciar, Battery F, Second artillery, badly shot through the body and severely burned with powder about face and head; recovery doubtful. John Allen, a private in the Second artillery, shot in head and neck, fatally injured. Maurice O'Donnell, Second artillery, shot in the head and powder burned, may recover. C. Backe, driver in rear, private, Second artillery, blown from his horse and badly injured, will recover. John Lyngburt, private, Second artillery, shot in left foot crushed by a bullet, not serious. Herbert Antes, bugler, Troop B, Seventh cavalry, shot in shoulder and arm; will recover. Sergeant Anthony Kane, Troop B, Seventh cavalry, earshot off. Sergeant George Hoffman, Troop B, Seventh cavalry, shot in chest. Corporal Abraham Riley, Battery F, Second artillery, thrown to the ground and badly injured. Sergeant King, Battery F, Second artillery, thrown from horse and bruised. Unknown artilleryman, thrown from horse and picked up unconscious; injuries slight. Unknown trooper, thrown from horse and injured about the legs. Miss Alice Fry, resident of nest severely injured by bullet. Mrs. C. Hubling, severely cut and injured in her home by falling glass.

The troops left Brighton park for a long march to exercise the horses. They were in command of Captain Dodd, of Troop F, Third cavalry, and consisted of Troop F, Third cavalry, forty men; Troop E, Sixth cavalry, Lieutenant Tate, forty men; platoon of Battery F, Second artillery, two guns, Lieutenant Cayle, twenty-three men; Troop B, Seventh cavalry, Captain Varum, forty men. The men marched in the order. Everything went smoothly until the column marching south on Grand boulevard was just crossing Oakwood boulevard. Then a terrific explosion occurred. Four of the horses drawing the caisson fell in their tracks, shot through and horribly mangled, while three others were blown fifty feet ahead against the trees on the boulevard. The caisson was blown to atoms, not a piece of it larger than man's hand being found. The boulevard looked like a battle field.

There was a quick series of explosions when the first report and shrapnel shot rained like hail among the trees on the boulevard and pierced the surrounding buildings. The concussion broke every window in the houses for blocks away. The walls and roofs of the dwellings showed the terrific effect of the missiles. Unexploded shells of the rear part of the caisson lay strewn over the ground. With the explosion came great confusion of the troops and for a moment the men and officers seemed powerless to move.

It was some little time before the two artillerymen could be found. One of them mangled beyond recognition, but supposed to be Doris, had been blown over a board sign twenty-five feet high and was found in a vacant lot behind it. One leg and an arm were gone. The other man, supposed to be Donovan, had been blown about 300 feet and was found in a vacant lot near the Lake Shore tracks. Joseph Gaylor was found near where he was struck.

Great damage was wrought by the explosion to neighboring property. Windows in most of the surrounding houses were blown out, and the damage to residence and park property in the neighborhood of the accident is estimated at $10,000. The house of R. C. Hubling was $10,000. The direct amount of $10,000. J. R. Custer was directly opposite where the accident occurred and sustained a loss of about $1,500. A large piece of one of the wheels of the gun carriage was carried through his sitting room window and carried away a large lamp which stood at the window.

The caisson consisted of a limber, on which is a chest, and the carriage, containing two chests more of ammunition, making three chests on the caisson. The explosion occurred in the chest of the limber, and the force of the explosion was to the rear, tearing away the caisson and igniting the powder in the other two chests. The first caisson carried forty-two chests. The first four cartridges. The shrapnel are loaded percussion shells, containing fulminate and small balls, and are fired from the cannon by a cartridge containing, as in this case three and three, quarter pounds of powder.

The theory of the accident is that the screw plug at the base of one of the shrapnel became loosened, some of the powder leaked out any being ground and pounded by the jolting of the limber ignited, and the ignition of the cartridges in the other two chests followed. The force of the explosion can be more readily understood when it is remembered that the 135 cartridges in the chests contained 455 pounds of powder.

The guns were the new rifled pieces recently introduced into the service and have never seen active duty. The ammunition is a couple of months old and has been jolted over the rough roads in Kansas and yet when going at a light trot on the smoothest road in Chicago, the explosion took place.

The Tariff Conference.

For the relief and cure of a cold in the head there is more potency in Ely's Cream Balm than in anything else it is possible to prescribe. This preparation has for years past been making a brilliant success as a remedy for cold in the head, catarrh and hay fever. Used in the initial of these complaints Cream Balm prevents any serious development of the symptoms, while almost numberless cases are on record of radical cures of chronic catarrh and hay fever after all other treatments have proved of no avail.

Women say that a meal tastes better when prepared by some one else, and that is just the reason why Simmons Liver Regulator is in such favor. It is already prepared in liquid and powder form. You don't need to make a tea. Another reason for this favor is that Simmons Regulator is better than Pills for Biliousness, Sick Headache, Constipation and Indigestion. Sample package powder 25 cents.

IN SENATE AND HOUSE.

The House Indorses the President's Action in Connection with the Strike.

WASHINGTON, July 17.—The house yesterday, by a vote of 125 to 27, adopted a resolution offered by Mr. McCreary, of Kentucky, indorsing the action of the president and the administration in suppressing lawlessness in connection with the strike. It was adopted under suspension of the rules, only thirty-eight minutes being allowed for debate. Mr. McCreary and Mr. Catchings made short speeches in support of the resolution and Mr. Peace and Mr. Brand indulged in some criticism of the action of the administration, but neither was unduly severe. The remainder of the day was spent in an effort to pass the Bayley bankruptcy bill, but although it was expressed and read a third time the quorum failed on the final vote.

Two more appropriation bills—the legislative, executive and judicial and the District of Columbia—were disposed of by the senate yesterday. The agricultural appropriation bill was also considered and was on the point of being passed, but there were several individual amendments proposed and the bill was postponed. This leaves but three more appropriation bills to be considered. The anti option bill, which has been on the vice president's table since it came from the house several weeks ago, was referred to the committee on agriculture and forestry.

MURDEROUS STRIKERS.

Fierce Battle in Alabama Between Miners and Deputies.

SIX KILLED AND MANY INJURED.

The Victims Fired Upon as They Were Leaving the Mines—Troops Sent to the Scene, as More Trouble May Occur at Any Moment.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., July 17.—A fierce battle occurred yesterday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at No. 8 mine, at Pratt's, between mobs of striking miners and deputies, in which six men were killed and nearly a score wounded. The full list of dead and maimed cannot be secured, as the bodies were carried off quickly after the fight occurred.

A mass meeting of striking miners was held on the creek near Pratt mines, and it was decided that the law be taken into their own hands, and that they would kill or be killed. About 4 o'clock, the time when the employees of the mines quit work and come out of the mines a mob of men was secreted in the woods near by. As the negroes would come out one by one, a shot would be sent at him, and they would drop to the ground, either fatally wounded or dead.

After the third negro had fallen the deputies opened fire on the mob, and a fierce battle took place. B. W. Tierce, the commander of the deputies, fell to the ground. A Winchester ball had pierced his body, just above the heart. Almost at the same instant, one of the strikers was seen to fall, but he arose again to his knees, and taking aim with his Winchester, fired four times at the deputies. The deputies kept reloading their guns and firing, and the mob began dispersing. The deputies then made a detour around the wounded striker, who was still firing, and after a time they succeeded in silencing his gun. He proved to be a Frenchman.

Another section of the mob made an attack on a train, which was carrying the negroes from Mine No. 4 to their homes. There were several guards on the engines, and the attack was answered with a fusillade of bullets. The first shot from the strikers went through the cab window of the engine and just missed killing the engineer and J. J. Moore, the superintendent of the mines.

Telegrams were sent to town in haste for help, and Sheriff Morrow summoned twenty-five deputies. Governor Jones, who is still in the city, hastily summoned the Birmingham battalion of the state troops. Out at Pratt's the posse were hastily formed and the woods were scoured for miles and miles, but the miners had made good their escape.

The work of hunting up the dead and wounded then began. Ten men were picked up and six are dead. George Campbell, colored, had his leg broken and a bullet went through his chin. He says that the striker came on him after he was down and kicked him and fired another shot into his nose. The negroes are terror stricken and are running wild. The streets about town are crowded with people and all sorts of rumors are flying about.

A courier has just returned from the scene and everything is well guarded there for another attack should one be made. The bodies of the two white men and one of the negroes have just been brought to the city, and the undertaking shops for blocks, are crowded with a surging mass of humanity.

Report just comes that a dead negro was found on a mile from the scene of battle on the Kansas City track.

MAHER'S EASY VICTORY.

He Knocks Out Frank Craig in the Second Round.

Boston, July 17.—At Music Hall last night, after two rounds of as hot fighting as Boston has witnessed this season, Peter Maher stood waving his arms over the prostrate form of Frank Craig, the colored wonder from New York, whom he had knocked out by a chance right hander. Craig was unfortunate enough in falling to strike on his face, and he lay in that position until long after the ten seconds had gone by.

It took but five minutes to settle the darkey's championship aspirations, but early in the battle it looked like a walk-over for him to win. He was all over his white opponent, but three or four stiff punches that he landed on the Irish lad evidently acted as wakers up for the latter. In the second round Maher sailed into the negro and for the first minute it was give and take with honors even. Then the battle inclined to the Caucasian, and he followed Craig all over the ring, and finally in the latter's corner caught him a stiff upper cut full in the face.

Before the darkey could get his guard into place Maher caught him a light one with the left. Then Maher shot his right and Craig fell to the floor with a bang that could be heard all over the hall. There he lay until Timekeeper Dan Murphy notified the referee that the time was up and the negro's seconds lifted him to his feet. He was then unconscious, but a few minutes' careful handling brought him round again.

A Brutal Tramp Captured.

CATSKILL, N. Y., July 17.—While Jacob Van Orden and his son were at work a tramp visited the Van Orden farmhouse. In the lower part of this town, and assaulted Mrs. Van Orden, who is 68 years old. Then he placed a revolver at her head, and by threatening to shoot her compelled her to give up what money she had. He then attempted to assault a little girl at a place only a few miles distant from the Van Orden farm. The girl's father heard her cries for assistance and in company with neighbors, pursued the rascal and captured him. The enraged farmers gave the tramp a severe thrashing and then took him to jail.

Striking Miners Stand Firm.

SCOTTDALE, Pa., July 17.—The delegates to the miners' convention have again voted to continue the strike. The convention was in session all day, and when the roll was called each delegate handed in his instructions and only two were in favor of declaring the strike off. The delegates from Painter and Bessemer works reported that nearly all of the colored men had left. President Barrett said that he looked for a settlement this week, as he believed the operators were now thoroughly satisfied that they could not operate the works without the old men.

Taken from His Home and Hanged.

TUSSELVILLE, Ky., July 17.—The body of Edwin Traubner was found hanging to a limb yesterday in a thicket near Adairville. Masked men went to Traubner's home at Adairville, and after calling him out tied his hands and feet and carried him to a thicket near G. W. Hunt's farm, several miles distant, and hung him. The cause of the hanging is not known. Several months ago he was accused of poisoning his father's family, which came near resulting in three deaths. Excitement is at fever heat in that community.

OXFORD DEFEATS YALE.

In the International Athletic Contest in London.

OXFORD 5 1-2 EVENTS, YALE, 3 1-2.

Captain Hickok, Bitterly Disappointed Over the Result, Says the Americans Did Not Do as Well as They Did in the Trial Events.

LONDON, July 17.—Despite the love of fair play, of which the English are wont to boast, the crowds which witnessed the International athletic contests between the Oxford and Yale teams on the Queen's Club grounds yesterday were generally most unfairly partisan. Of course in the box where the American ambassador and a large number of prominent Englishmen were gathered the Englishmen made a show of clapping their hands when a Yale man was successful, and Mr. Bayard was equally careful to applaud the successes of the Oxford men, but everywhere else the most intense jealousy was manifested. In front of what was known as Yale's pavilion, which was supposed to be reserved for Americans, a crowd of well dressed men and women gathered, and when the little knot of Yale men gave the college cheer many of these people would turn round and make insulting remarks.

"I call themselves gentlemen," scornfully remarked a lady of the American party, and when Yale won some events and her partisans were rejoicing, a burly Britisher yelled "Remember that the Britannia beat the Vigilant six times." None of these remarks were made good naturally, but with the most intense passion. The scene at the end expressed the whole feeling. While poor Pond, who ran one of the pluckiest races ever seen, was lying in his friend's arms, the Oxonian who had saved the English, from being tied, was being borne triumphantly to the pavilion, men and women following, with faces aflame, and naming and yelling in maddening crowds.

Nearby, Hickok, of the Yale team, and Fry, of the Oxords, were interviewed by the Associated Press correspondent after the games. Fry was very happy. He said the Oxford team was delighted with the Yale athletes. He thought the Americans had not done their best, and certainly were not up to the record. This was because they were over trained, while the Oxford men had not reached their best form because they were under trained. He said further that, although it was difficult to induce the Oxford men to train, in the summer time, he was determined, if possible, to get Oxford to agree to a rematch with Yale in 1895. He hoped that the athletes of the two universities could meet annually.

Hickok said he was bitterly disappointed, not so much because the Yale team were beaten as because the men did not do as well as they did in the trials. "I have thrown the hammer," he said, "over 125 feet, but today I could not exceed 110 feet. However, there is no use looking for reasons. They got there first and we were beaten. They are a splendid lot of fellows and there is nothing to regret but the result."

The following is a summary of the contest, which Oxford won by 5½ events (not points) to Yale's 3½ events.
One hundred yards dash—Charles B. Fry (Wadham college) first, Gilbert Jordan (University college) second, Ashley Pond, Jr. (Yale) third. Time, 10.3 sec.
One hundred and twenty yards hurdle—William J. Oakley (Christ Church) first, G. B. Hatch (Yale) second, Thomas C. Scott (Hartford college) third. Time, 16.15 sec.
Four hundred and forty yard run—Gilbert Jordan (University) first, G. F. Sanford (Yale) second, Ashley Pond (Yale) third. Time, 51 sec.
Half mile run—Wilfred H. Greenhow (Exeter) first, Francis W. Rathbone (New college) second, W. S. Woodhull (Yale) third. Time, 2 min. 4.5 sec.
One mile run—Wilfred H. Greenhow (Exeter college) first, J. E. Morgan (Yale) second. Time, 4 min. 24.25 sec.
Running broad jump—L. P. Sheldon (Yale), 22 ft. 11 in.; C. B. Fry (Wadham), 22 ft. 2 in.; W. J. Oakley (Christ church), 22 ft. 1 in.

Running high jump—L. P. Sheldon (Yale) and Eric D. Swanwick (University college) tied for first place at 5 ft 8½ in. The event was divided.

Putting shot—W. O. Hickok (Yale), 41 ft. 7½ in.; Alexander Brown (Yale), 41 ft.; Arthur F. Malling (Exeter college), 35 ft. 3½ in.

Throwing hammer—W. O. Hickok (Yale), 110 ft. 5 in.; Alexander Brown (Yale), 104 ft.; George S. Robinson (New college), 101 ft. 10 in.

The Sports' club entertained the Yale and Oxford teams at dinner last night. The hour originally set for dinner was 8 o'clock, but owing to the late hour at which the athletic contests were concluded it was postponed until 9 o'clock. Besides the teams there were 130 guests, most of them men of distinction. Sir Richard Webster, formerly attorney general, presided. United States Ambassador Bayard sat at his right, and Sir John Astley at the left, the teams following side by side. Among the others present were the president and secretaries of the Oxford and Cambridge and other athletic associations, William Waldorf Astor and General Patrick Collins, United States consul general.

After the company, with prolonged enthusiasm, had toasted the queen, President Cleveland, the Prince of Wales and the members of the royal family, Sir Richard Webster presented medals to the successful athletes. Each recipient was hailed with shouts of enthusiasm. The speaker in a numbered 603, notwithstanding the inclement weather.

CHECKMATED.

My lady spent a golden hour
Last night with me at chess,
And only those who know her power
Yet to her do I owe the best of terms,
Can save a man from a bad game,
I'm sure she does it with a magic spell,
A magic spell she does not lack.

My lady loves a game of chess,
A game that is not to be despised,
Yet she is less than a chess player,
Than when she is at the chess board,
At her feet she sits and waits,
And she is not a chess player,
Or would she smile in sweetness mute,
Ye answer I have craved.

My lady loves a game of chess,
My knight is not a chess player,
My pawns are not a chess player,
My king is not a chess player,

What do you Wish for, in the way of easy work? You can have it, if you'll use Pearlline. With anything you can think of, that water doesn't hurt, the easiest way to wash it or to clean it is to take Pearlline. You can't do any harm, by doing away with that wearing rub, rub, rub. Besides, with almost everything, there are special reasons why you should use Pearlline. For instance: There's no shrink to flannels, if they're properly washed with it.

Peddlers and some unscrupulous grocers will tell you, "this is as good as" or "the same as" Pearlline." IT'S FALSE—Pearline is never peddled, if your grocer sends you an imitation, be honest—send it back.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.

Mrs. Patrick Boland, of Monticello, Took Paris Green—The House Fired. The wife of Patrick Boland, a respectable farmer living about a mile south of Monticello, yesterday, tried to commit suicide by taking Paris green. Soon afterwards the house was discovered to be on fire and considerable damage was done before the fire was extinguished.

Dr. McWilliams says Mrs. Boland will recover if inflammation doesn't set in.

What a Careless Farm Hand Did With a Hatch—Red Riding Hood—Open Air Services—The Social Club's Picnic—Other Notes.

Correspondence ARGUS and MERCURY. —It has been proven that a match applied to a brush heap and left to itself will accomplish more work than several men in a number of days. Cal Brown, in this manner, harvested last week several fields of uncut hay and some grain for Mr. Emmet Writer, by whom he is employed.

—Extensive preparations are being made for the Red Riding Hood entertainment, which will be given in the Presbyterian Church, Thursday and Friday evenings, July 19 and 20. The Society of Christian Endeavor has already made many improvements upon the church and should be encouraged. Come out and fill the house. Admission 25 cents, reserved seats 35, children 15 cents.

—Mr. Koch, an evangelist, held open air services in the M. E. Church yard, Sunday afternoon and Monday evening. He had with him a bass drum, probably to rouse the sleepers if any were inclined to sleep during his ministrations.

—Rev. Mr. Conklin, who, with his family, is visiting Mr. J. VanDuzer, will occupy the pulpit in the M. E. Church, Sunday next.

—The Social Club will hold a picnic at the home of Miss Mabel Howell, Wednesday afternoon. We predict for the first annual picnic a great success. The grounds will afford plenty of room for out door sports. Refreshments will be served by the young ladies of the club.

—Mrs. Brooks returned to her home in the Cadwell house, on Friday of last week.

—The rain, on Saturday, though very much needed, found several of our farmers with hay cut.

THE PRESIDENT COMING TO MID-OLETOWN.

The Sick May Receive Medical Services Free of Charge.

The President and members of the European and American Staff of German, English, Irish, Scandinavian and American Doctors of New York city will be at the Russell House, Middletown, on Tuesday, July 24th, one day only. The sick and afflicted may consult them without charge during their stay.

If you are incurable they will tell you; therefore invalids must not take offence if they are rejected, as no case will be accepted unless there is a moral certainty of a cure being effected. These Doctors are graduates of the best universities of Europe and America; they are of the highest standing in the medical profession and have had unlimited experience in the treatment of all Chronic Diseases and Deformities. As the latest methods, instruments and appliances of the various schools of both the Old and the New World are familiar to and at the command of this staff of doctors, it is reasonable to believe that in ninety cases out of every hundred a cure can be effected, even when the patients have been given up as incurable by doctors who have had less experience. Do not be discouraged because your doctor cannot give you relief, or even if he tells you that you cannot get well, for it matters not what your disease may be, you can consult the doctors free, and, if curable, they will treat you; if incurable, they will give you such advice as will tend to prolong life and afford you the greatest relief.

The doctor will visit Middletown one day each month. Office hours from 10 a. m. to 6 p. m.

Impaired Digestion repaired by Beecham's Pills.

CURED BY PASKOLA.

What Pre-Digested Food Is Doing For Dyspeptic People.

ITS WONDERFUL EFFECTS.

That is what people who take it say, and the statement is repeated by the druggists who sell it. There has never been such a demand for any preparation as there now is for Paskola, the pre-digested food. The druggists say that a large stock of it is rapidly disposed of in meeting the calls that are constantly made for it.

Dyspeptic sufferers, who have tried Paskola as a last resort, after taking every other remedy they could find, have been delighted to notice their symptoms soon disappearing. Pale, thin people who take Paskola rapidly gain flesh.

The fact of the matter is, Paskola is a scientific discovery. It is not an old fashioned remedy like the greasy, evil smelling cod-liver oil, a relic of a past age. Paskola is the outcome of modern research and progress. It cures because it is based on correct principles.

Paskola is not a medicine, but a food, pleasant to the taste and agreeable to the weakest stomach. Being pre-digested, it is instantly absorbed by the system when it is swallowed, entering at once into the tissues of the body to form new flesh and blood. It builds up the strength, gives tone to the stomach, enables other food to be properly digested. Delicate stomachs cannot stand sickening cod liver oils and other fatty mixtures. Paskola has replaced them.

Children thrive wonderfully when they are given Paskola. They like it, and cannot get enough of it. As a means of imparting health, strength and vigor to the puny little ones it is unsurpassed.

You can obtain Paskola of any good druggist and a free pamphlet will be mailed by the Pre-Digested Food Co., 30 Reade Street, New York.

A speaker at a meeting of the New York State Association of the Vigilant men, held at the Hotel Hamilton, last night, said that the vigilantes were not the law, but that they were the only force that could be relied upon to maintain the law.

Oxford won the Yale three of the events in yesterday's athletic contest, while the British-Vigilant race was a tie. The Britannia-Vigilant race was the only one of a victory for the British yacht. It was a bad day for American sports abroad.

For the first time in many months the receipts of the government are in excess of the expenditures. Thus far this month the Treasury has gained over $2,500,000 in available cash. Increased internal revenue receipts account for the improved condition of the government's finances.

Major Gen. Schofield, who has always advocated a larger military establishment than the United States maintains in times of peace, is quoted as saying that the recent strike has convinced him that the country needs a larger army. The strike has convinced nearly every one else that the military forces of the States and nation are ample for any emergency that may arise. Rioting stopped in Chicago as soon as the rioters realized that the authorities were determined to enforce the laws and preserve order. What is needed in times of domestic turbulence is not more troops, but greater promptness in the use of those already under arms.

The law under which the President will appoint a commission to inquire into the great strike was passed in 1888. The fact that six years have passed without use being made of the law would seem to indicate that no one has much opinion of its usefulness. Under the law, Commissioner of Labor Carroll D. Wright will be chairman and will have the casting vote. Regarding the powers and duties of the commission Mr. Wright says: "We have nothing to do with the arbitration of the questions involved in the dispute. The law requires the commissioners simply to investigate the facts and report upon them, making at the same time such suggestions in the way of remedies as may be deemed appropriate."

The Civil Service Commission is the only municipal department in Brooklyn that remains under Democratic control and Republicans, from leaders down to heelers, are howling that it is run in the interest of Democrats now holding places under the city government and that it is impossible for a Republican who takes an examination to get a fair rating. The Brooklyn Civil Service Commission is absolutely unique among the Civil Service Commissions of the country. All the others exist for the purpose of keeping Republicans in and Democrats out of public office, and the knowledge that they are being balked by a device of their party's own making, makes the hungry Republican spoliemen of Brooklyn fairly wild.

The great railroad strike in the West has aroused much enthusiasm over arbitration, and the Constitutional Convention has been asked to embody the principle of compulsory arbitration in the new constitution. The proposition offered is that the legislature shall provide by general laws for the appointment of boards of arbitration to settle all matters of controversy between employers and employees that "affect public interests." The phrase "affect public interests" is too elastic and indefinite to have a place in the State's fundamental law, and it is not likely that the principle of compulsory arbitration will commend itself to the calm judgment of the convention or of the people of the State. It would be a great stretch of authority and a great abridgement of the rights of the individual if the State, through its official arbitrators, should assume to say to employers you must hire men on such and such conditions and at such and such wages, and to employees you must work for this or that man on conditions and for wages fixed by arbitrators, no matter if they are not satisfactory to you.

Talking of a Fireman's Clam Bake.

Montagen Hose Co. is talking of holding a clam bake at Livingston Manor, about Sept. 1st, and there seems to be a desire on the part of firemen to make the affair a firemen's clam bake, in which all members of the department can participate.

The yachts started even, the Britannia having weather side. Vigilant led by two minutes at the first mark and was nearly three minutes ahead at second mark.

The Vigilant steadily drew away under a spanking breeze and at the end of the first round of the course was nearly six minutes in the lead. BOLD DAYLIGHT BURGLARY.

The Office of the Middletown Beef Company Entered at Noon and the Till Robbed.

One of the boldest burglaries ever committed in this city occurred at noon to-day, when the office of the Middletown Beef Company, on Henry street, was entered, the till broken open and $19.69 stolen.

Mr. N. L. Jennings, the cashier and bookkeeper, left the office at 12:15, locking the till, in which there was $19.69 in small bills and coin, and also securing the outer door.

At 12:45, Mr. J. E. Gibbs, the manager, came to the office and at once discovered that the till had been forced open with a meat hook which lay near and its contents appropriated.

He notified the police by telephone and ran to the Erie depot, thinking the thief might have boarded train 6, but saw no suspicious character.

Entrance to the building was gained by breaking a small hole in the window on the north side of the building, through which the thief had passed his fingers and unfasted the sash lock. The robbery of the till required but a few moments and he went out as he came.

It is believed that the robbery was committed by some one familiar with the premises, who knew that all connected with the establishment had gone to dinner.

AN UNFORTUNATE YOUNG WOMAN.

Two Men, Each of Whom Have Almost Unlimited Control of Her, Quarrel About Her in Public—One of Them a Married Man at That.

This morning when the O. and W. Wild West Show excursion was about to leave Main street, the passengers were attracted by the loud talk of two young men and a prepossessing black eyed girl. The listeners finally arrived at the fact that the girl wanted to go on the excursion; one of the young men wanted her to go with him, and the other, who appeared to have an equal claim upon her, tried to persuade her to stay at home.

Just as the train was about to start, the girl and one of the young men mounted the steps, but as the train began to move, the other young man seized the girl and dragged her from the platform.

The other young man then jumped off and there was a quarrel of several hours given in installments at various points about town, in which all three participated.

Just before train 6 on the Erie was due this afternoon, an Argus man saw the girl hastening to the depot and asked her the outcome of the fracas.

She replied with snapping eyes: "I couldn't go on the excursion, but I'm going to New York anyhow."

Before she reached the depot, however, she met the young man, who didn't want her to go, (who, by the way is a married man) and was instantly switched off in a direction that led her away from the depot.

APPOINTMENTS BY THE MAYOR.

A RAINY DAY IN CAMP.

BATTALION DRILL CUT SHORT BY A MORNING SHOWER.

The State Camp plateau the rainiest spot on the Earth—Good Appetites in spite of Frequent Soakings—Personal Notes—Buffalo Bootblacks in the Guard House Drilling in the Brolling Sun.

STATE CAMP, PEKESKILL, N. Y., Monday, July 16.

A heavy thunder shower, which struck camp about 8 o'clock, last evening, drove the visitors out and interfered with the sacred concert which the 65th Regiment Band had intended to give.

This morning opened up with cloudy weather, and the early morning company drill was therefore very comfortable and was enjoyed by the men. The instruction was in platoon movements extended order, and about an hour afterwards the men had breakfast.

There are no complaints of loss of appetite by the men and even the few dyspeptics in the company do not hesitate when the call is sounded, but fall in with great alacrity.

DRIVEN FROM THE FIELD BY RAIN.

Battalion drill was held at 9:30 and was brought to an abrupt termination by more rain. It can rain quicker and harder on this plateau than anywhere in the world. The order to march off the field was given as it commenced to sprinkle, and although the retreat was made in double time, the men were soaked before they reached their tents.

The rain continued all morning and orders have been issued to assemble for battalion drill at 3 o'clock, this afternoon, providing the rain ceases.

Rain always makes an extra amount of work to be performed. The arms have to be carefully cleaned immediately after getting wet in order to prevent rust. Shoes become soaked and muddy and the bootblacks reap a harvest.

MORE COMPLIMENTS FOR THE 24TH.

The company is keeping up the good work commenced on Saturday evening, and at evening parade repeated the success of the night before. As the men marched in review, the alignment was perfect and the spectators applauded heartily when the 24th, passed them.

Major Chase, who has command of the battalion of separate companies, complimented Captain McIntyre upon the appearance of the men, and said that the company, without exception, presented the finest appearance of any company in the line. It has also been stated that we have the finest street in camp.

A MODEL TENT.

Musicians Rhee and Colwell are quartered with the band and drum corps and on Sunday morning, the inspecting officers called the other musicians to their tent and told them to look at it carefully and use it as a pattern for to-day's inspection.

Sergeant Hathaway, who is acting as Sergeant Major of the battalion has made a hit with the Major. His strict attention to the many duties of the office has won for him many compliments from his superior officers.

First Sergeant Decker arrived in camp shortly after the evening parade, and this morning, relieved Sergeant Knapp.

Private Dusenberry acted as orderly to Major Chase on Sunday, and will be excused from guard duty during the week.

CORRALLED THE BUFFALO BOOTBLACKS.

Six bootblacks were gathered in by the guard, last night. They came from Buffalo, having beaten their way on freight trains. The prisoners were taken to the guard tent, searched and, this morning, were run out of camp.

The new shower baths are very fine and are well patronized by the boys. The water is warm and a bath after a drill is very refreshing.

The hospital corps was called upon to care for a member of the 5th Separate Company, who fainted during the evening parade, Sunday evening.

The health of the men continues good and no one has thus far been reported on the sick list.

DUNPHY'S "CANTEN."

Dunphy's "canten," which is located just outside of the line of the property owned by the State, is doing a lucrative business, but the privileges are not abused. The place was closed all day, Sunday, but opened for business at early hour, this morning.

Will have to cut my letter short, to-day. We have just received orders for battalion drill at 2:15. The sun is out and boiling hot, and we will have two hours of drill in the hottest part of the day. A. E. N.

EXCURSION TO SEA GATE.

Several Middletown gentlemen went to New York, this morning, and from thence by the steamer Victor to Sea Gate, formerly Norton's Point, the western point of Coney Island, to inspect the property which has recently come into the possession of a syndicate of capitalists, who compose the Norton Point Land Company.

Among them were the following gentlemen who went to Sea Gate as the guests of Mr. C. Macardell, who is a stockholder and officer of the company owning the property: Messrs. U. T. Hayes, E. Millen, Geo. H. Decker, Chas. L. Merritt, J. R. Van Duzer, J. F. Bradner, F. O. Tompkins and Mayor Stanbury.

Sea Gate, with the ocean on one side and Gravesend Bay on the other, has always been regarded as the most desirable part of Coney Island, but it was not until a year or two ago that a perfect title could be secured to it. The company now owning the property proposes to make of it a family resort, a city of homes by the sea and all lots are sold under rigid restrictions as to the uses to which they may be put. The company has made many improvements on the property, and to-day's excursion was designed to give stockholders an opportunity to show their friends what the company owned, what it has done and what it proposes to do.

A Church Spire Destroyed by Lightning.
During the shower, Saturday afternoon, lightning struck the spire of St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church, in Wappingers Falls, and set it on fire. The village firemen did their best to extinguish the flames, but they did not succeed and the spire was destroyed. The church was saved, but it was badly damaged by water. The loss is very considerable. The spire will be rebuilt at once.

The Ellenville Races.

A RETIRED BUSINESS WOMAN.

A Page From Her History.

The important experiences of others are interesting. The following is no exception: "I had been troubled with heart disease 35 years, much of that time very seriously. For five years I was treated by one physician continuously. I was in business, but obliged to retire on account of my health. A physician told my friends that I could not live a month, my feet and limbs were badly swollen, and I was indeed in a serious condition when a gentleman directed my attention to Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure, and said that his sister, who had been afflicted with heart disease, had been cured by the remedy, and was again a strong, healthy woman. I purchased a bottle of the Heart Cure, and in less than an hour after taking the first dose I could feel a decided improvement in the circulation of my blood. When I had taken three doses I could feel my ankles, swelling I had not done for years, and my limbs had been swollen so long that it seemed almost painful. Before I had taken one bottle of the New Heart Cure the swelling had all gone down, and I was so much better that I did my own work. On my recommendation six other persons have taken this valuable remedy."—Mrs. Morgan, 509 W. Harrison St., Chicago, Ill.

HE GOT INTO THE DIET

A MEMBER OF THE LIARS' CLUB HEARD TISZA'S LAST ADDRESS.

He Made a Bold Play and Carried His Point, and His Conscience Only Bothered Him When He Saw That He Would Be Successful In the Scheme.

The party was in conversation over its beer of all shades and all degrees of excellence, and tales had been told in several languages and of diverse degrees of truthfulness when the Hungarian pronounced upon an opportunity—he had his glass empty first—to tell for the hundredth time of the beauties of his native Budapest. The baths, the Andrássy avenue, the park, the theaters, the bridge, the palaces, the music and the "incomparably beautiful women" had all been described, and Hungarian statesmen, from Kossuth to Kalmoky, landed when a story teller interrupted with:

"Budapest may be all that you claim for it, but I'll never forget an experience I had there when I fooled some of its bigwigs. It was only a few years ago, when I stopped there for a rest on my way from Paris by the Oriental express to Constantinople. I noticed an unusual excitement at the Hotel Hungaria, could see there were many strangers in town, and across the Danube, over the Schloss, floated the royal standard of Hungary as a sign that the king was there. You know the Hungarians never speak of Franz Josef as emperor, always as king.

"During the day I heard that the ministry would resign the next day, and that Premier Tisza would make his last address in parliament. Well, you can well imagine I wanted to be in at the death and set about to secure a ticket of admission to the diet hall. Those whom I asked simply laughed at me. Tickets were at a high premium, and some to whom I applied gave me a Hungarian look of withering contempt which made me only more anxious to get there.

"But the morrow came, and I saw the chances for a peep at the show growing exasperatingly less, when I suddenly felt myself possessed of an idea. I went to the house of parliament and after much inquiry learned that the librarian of the upper house, and he alone, could admit me, and I succeeded in seeing him. 'I'm surprised,' I said to him, 'that you have made no provision for the press at a time so important as this.' 'Press?' said he. 'Why, press tickets have been issued to all who are entitled to them, and if you have received none it's a mistake—an oversight.' He called a servant, said something in a jargon which I could not understand and made me a bow of dismissal. The man, who was dressed to go on in the chorus of the 'Dogar Student' or the 'Black Hussar,' beckoned me to follow him, led me to an inner room, where he left me with a desk, two chairs and my guilty conscience. I began to wish myself back at the hotel, with its good wine, good music and fine view on the Danube. Visions of police investigation and an exposure, with possibly a term in a Hungarian jail, rose before me, for you know I had no more to do with newspaper business than I had with African exploration, when a clerk entered and with many a flirt and flutter proceeded to make out my credentials for admission to the press logs.

"He was a funny little man, this clerk, who labored under the hallucination that he could speak English, and he was further afflicted with that mild form of insanity which manifests itself in the dyed mustache. He took my name and pedigree, asked me whence I came and how long I proposed to remain in the city, and I answered all with that promptness and strict truthfulness which one acquires by years of association with the members of this club.

"Finally he put the poser, 'What is the name of your paper?' I thought with right that all great papers must be represented and feared that if I mentioned one of them I would be discovered and lost; so, thinking of the motto of the club, 'God loves a cheerful liar,' I said without a moment's hesitation, 'The North Adams Transcript.' He didn't just remember the name and had to ask as to the spelling several times while making out the documents by means of which I was to secure an admission card, but if he had pressed me after I saw that the bluff went I would have told him a circulation story which—well, which would not be in keeping with The Transcript's books.

"Well, I got into the press logs in time to hear Hungary's grand old man, Tisza, make the greatest speech of his life. Of course I could not understand his Hungarian, perfect as it no doubt was, but the enthusiasm which he aroused seemed contagious, and once during his talk, when a great shout of approval filled the chamber, women waved their handkerchiefs and fans, and members of the opposition even looked pleased. I caught myself applauding, but I quickly recalled the fact that I was there as The Transcript representative and as such had no opinion.

"The picture from the gallery where 'we of the press' sat was one I shall never forget. Every inch of room in the spectators' pews was occupied, every deputy's chair was taken, and on the floor the monotony of the black and white was broken by the picturesque costumes of the bishops, whose office entitles them to a seat in the house.

"After it was all over I went with my new companions of the press to a nearby restaurant, where we ate all sorts of things, all seasoned more or less with paprika and drank tokay wine. I told my story, and The Transcript received its baptism of Hungarian fire—Kalmoky in glass Dunkles bitters."—New York Tribune

A BIRD CHOIR.

An Object Lesson Introduced Into the Service by a Cincinnati Pastor.

Pastor Dobbins of the Lincoln Park Baptist church inaugurated a beautiful new feature in his services on Sunday. He announced that he would preach two sermons in reference to spring, one on the growing season and the other on song birds. Accordingly he asked that members of the congregation, as many as could, bring canary birds to church.

The result was that there were 40 cages of birds in the church this morning when the service opened. The cages were hung from the gas brackets, around the walls and on the sides of the organ. The rustling of fans, the noise of turning leaves and the murmur of voices before the service began started the little warblers to work.

At first they twittered and called to each other, then began to sing. Softly, first one, then another, each gradually gaining confidence and increasing the length and strength of his song, until finally, when the organist began the voluntary and the loud notes sounded, the whole flock broke forth in a burst of melody. All through the service they kept it up, increasing or diminishing their notes as the noises in the church gave them the cue. The same experience was repeated in the evening. Mr. Dobbins spoke of the birds affording a good example for the human race, in that they worked industriously early and late, raised their young and taught them how to take care of themselves.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

NOT SO EASY AS IT LOOKS.

The Endeavor to Get Married Is Chilled by Many Legal Requirements.

To get married seems an easy thing to the young man whose fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love. But when it comes to the actual ceremony there are a thousand and one terrors which surround and threaten to overcome him. Marriage in some states is easy. In others it is as difficult as obtaining a divorce.

A well known Philadelphian was about to be married to a beautiful young woman who lived in the state of Delaware. He had no idea that the marriage laws of that state were of an appalling nature. He had secured his license, and thought that was all that was necessary.

"Have you filed your bond yet?" said some one to him the day before the wedding.

"What?" gasped he.

"Your bond," repeated the questioner. "You know every man who is married in this state has to file a bond for the protection of the state."

The bridegroom was rather dubious, but was finally persuaded that this was a fact.

"I'll see a lawyer about it in the morning," said he. So he went to a friend who was a legal light and said:

"See here. They tell me I have to give a bond to the state when I get married."

"Certainly. Haven't you done so?" in a surprised way.

"No. I never heard of such a thing before. What kind of bond is it?"

"Oh, any real estate will do."

"But I haven't any real estate."

The lawyer looked at him a moment. Then he solemnly said:

"Haven't you any friends who own property?"

"None that I care to ask to bind it up that way. I can't ask my bride's relatives, you know."

His friend looked at him pityingly.

"You can't postpone the wedding, can you?"

"What?" fairly shrieked the unfortunate.

"Of course not, of course not," said the legal light soothingly. But the poor bridegroom looked stricken.

"Tell me you won't do it, old man. I'll tend to the matter for you. Don't give yourself any more concern about it."

The young man about to be married then grasped his hand. He could not speak for a moment, and then he poured forth his thanks. He picked up his hat in a relieved sort of way and walked to the door. Then he turned.

"By the way, I forgot to ask you how large is the amount of the bond required?"

"Fifty cents," said the lawyer.—New York Recorder.

Over the Wire.

"These telegraph wires are convenient things, are they not?"

"Yes, and these mild shocks are perhaps rather beneficial than otherwise—but—"

"Good Lord! This must be something about the income tax."—Life.

With a Preview.

A certain judge who is blessed with a tremendous head of hair, which is generally in a state of wild disorder, was questioning a youthful witness to make sure that he comprehended the character and importance of the oath he was about to take.

"Boy," he said, with his severest and most magisterial manner, "do you feel sure that you could identify me after six months? Now, be careful. Think before you speak."

"Well, your honor," replied the boy after a prolonged survey of the judge's portly figure and rugged features, "I ain't sure, but I think I could if you wasn't to comb your hair."—Youth's Companion.

Not Satisfied.

In a Washington county town, a little while ago, the local champion liar was brought up before the justice for stealing hens. It was a pretty plain case, and by the advice of his lawyer the prisoner said, "I plead guilty." This surprising answer in place of the string of lies expected staggered the justice. He rubbed his head. "I guess—I'm afraid—well, Hiram," said he, after a thoughtful pause, "I guess I'll have to have more evidence before I sentence you."—Green Bag.

Quite Unsympathetic.

"Oh, see that?" exclaimed Birdie.

"See what?" inquired the staid John.

"Why, see that little dandy just above the waves like a tiny lighthouse over the scene."

"Oh, come, you had better go out to the punt in the back yard and soak your little headlet."—Texas Slittings.

Beyond His Powers.

"The gentleman you see pacing up and down yonder as if he were mentally damaged is Schmidt, the famous accountant."

"What is the matter with him?"

"He was trying yesterday to unravel the complications of his wife's hair-dressing book."—Herald Exponent.

A Neighboring Hint.

Mrs. Sabers—Why in the world don't you dress as the lawn mower of yours?"

"No, Ma'am, I don't. The man told me not to tell you had your pants turned."—New York Weekly.

Cupid Cleared of Theft.

"Was that you, sir, who stole a kiss from my daughter in that tunnel?"
